On the day that you left me just standing there
Walked away from the station; looked back with a tear
Turned my head just to check that you weren't coming back
To tell me to start again
Babe, let's just start again

I'll colour your waking moments
As I lift your feet up off the ground
I'll take you where you've never been
As we look up at the clouds
Saying, "How did we get this way?"
Saying, "How did we get this way?"

And as he clings on, to your lips
I hope you spare a thought for
The first time, that we kissed
Babe fireworks were flying in the air and Babe fireworks were lying in the air and

I'll colour your waking moments
As I lift your feet up off the ground
I'll take you where you've never been
As we look up at the clouds
Saying, "How did we get this way?"
Saying, "How did we get this way?"

Babe fireworks were flying in the air and
Babe fireworks were flying in the air and
Babe fireworks were flying in the air and
Babe fireworks were flying in the air and
Babe fireworks were flying in the air and
Babe fireworks were flying in the air and
Babe fireworks were flying in the air and
Babe fireworks were flying in the air and

I'll colour your waking moments
As I lift your feet up off the ground
I'll take you where you've never been
As we look up at the clouds
Saying, "How did we get this way?"

Saying, "How did we get this way?"
