I dont wanna live in heartache, dont bring me down again, stop doing my head in, when will it end? when will it end?

Get ready its showtime, got nothing to lose but you, now i've made up my mind, you no what to do, you know what to do

Jump! why dont you just jump, now you're out on your own and they wont wait for you to go so Jump! why dont you just jump, now you're out of time and they know what you can do

Sick and tired of you hanging around, why dont you get it through your head when i say its over, its over and dead its over and dead

They say im livin so good, yeah im doing fine without you, aint missing nothing, especially you, yeah you,

Jump! why dont you just jump, now you're out on your own and they wont wait for you to go so Jump! why dont you just jump, now you're out of time and they know what you can do

You didn't think it possible, I could ever live without your love, but you lost it all, ha!

You say you need me, whatever, whatever, ive heard it all before, cant live without me, whatever, whatever, ive heard it all before, and you say you love me, whatever, whatever, ive heard it all before, do anything for me, whatever, whatever, ive heard it all before so Jump! why dont you just jump, now you're out on your own and they won't wait for you to go so Jump! why dont you just jump, now you're out of time and they know what you can do why you can jump!
