"All The Wrong Reasons"

Got this information I don't want to act upon

Taking advantage of the situation would be wrong

(All the wrong reasons!)

I give myself away everytime you walk into the room

Cannot help the way I feel for you

Trip over my words end up feeling like a fool

When you tell me he's the one for you

You don't hear him talk

You don't know his game

His intentions and desires aren't the same

CHORUS:

Pride, Ego, Selfishness

Trying to fill some emptiness

Girl he's making love to you for all the wrong reasons

I'd give him up so easily

Move in with my sympathy

I don't want you hear with me for all the wrong reasons

(All the wrong reasons!)

You trust me like a friend tell me all the little things he does

Makes you feel like you're the lucky one

But secrets...I can't tell the way he's playing you around

It's killing me to watch it all go down

If you could read his mind

See behind his eyes

You'd know for yourself his love is just a lie

CHORUS

Got this information I don't want to act upon

Taking advantage of the situation would be wrong

And I wish I never knew what he's doing to you

(repeat and fade
