"Shadi"

Long time ago, when I was a young girl, a boy used to come from the nearby woods
His name was Shadi Shadi and I used to play in the snow, we sang for each other and ran in the wind We carved our names in the rocks and the wind bit our faces.

One of these days, the world was smothered with fire some people began fighting against other people and the fighting spread to our hills Shadi ran to watch
I got scared, I yelled: Shadi where did you go, Shadi He disappeared, he could not hear me, the valley took him in since that day I never saw him again Shadi was lost for ever Snow fell and melted away for twenty times I grew up and Shadi remained the boy I knew, playing in the snow.
