

Faith Of The Damned

"Screaming"

well peace of mind you hide in pieces a goddess to your shrine well seems to fill these conscious bodies rising down so blind screaming decide yourself cause nothing sells and once inside you seal it hollow administered beyond your depth your sermon losing strand now spare the lamb to save the righteous faith of a drowning man (chorus)
a selfless act that craves redemption hollows the heart that's shed nothing more to show conviction a penitent man is dead (chorus)
