I'm living for all the times I washed myself away
I'm living to try and make some sunshine out of rain
I'm living to try and learn from all of my mistakes
I'm living to find someone to love and spend my days
I'm living so I can put a smile on their face

I'm living so I can keep the promises I made
I'm living so I can give and never have to take
I'm living so everything I've learned won't go to waste
I'm living to make some sense of all my yesterdays
I'm living so all these thoughts won't ever fade away

Won't let these thoughts fade away
Won't let these thoughts fade
I'll keep the parts that help me ride my wave
Faith and love will help me find the way
As I move, I make it stay
I won't let these thoughts fade away

Away
Won't let these thoughts fade away
Won't let these thoughts fade
I'll keep the parts that help me ride my wave
Faith and love will help me find the way
As I move, I make it stay
I won't let these thoughts fade out

Won't let these thoughts fade away
Won't let these thoughts fade away
Won't let these thoughts fade away
Won't let these thoughts fade away
