I'm so lonely I could die
Stab in antenna's in my mind
Life it cuts me like a knife
Strange I never know just why

Put the days that I see myself inside me
In my open hand
Put the days that I see myself inside me
In my open hand

I'm so lonely I could fly
I can't decide if I'm over or out

Yeah
Put the days that I see myself inside me
In my open hand
Put the days that I see myself inside me
In my open hand

Well never mind, it's all behind me
It's always there, somewhere behind me

Keep breathing
Over and over and over again

Put the days that I see myself inside me
In my open hand
Put the days that I see myself inside me
In my open hand

Well never mind, it's all behind me
It's always there, somewhere behind me

Keep breathing over and over and over again...
