Rain clouds form from my breath
I got dried ash up in my head
And my gently beating heart has turned to stone
Loss of faith in my cheap existence
Has led me to the darkest of places
From which I can't return from

I've... oh... been selling myself... to the devil
I've... been selling myself... selling myself... to the devil

Numb me out day after day
As I let him come and take me and fill me up
With all the pain and hatred in this world
From the cracks within the walls that keep me caged and far away from everything
I hear a voice I used to call my own, telling me to take his hand
But I can't reach that far
When I need to believe in me
He forces himself on me
I try to believe
I try to believe
But he won't let me go

Lick me up like honey baby 'cause I've been going nowhere
Lick me up like honey baby 'cause I've been going
nowhere
You know I'm spinning, won't you come and hold me...

I've... been selling myself... selling myself... to the devil

You wanna play this game yeah?
You wanna play this game with me?
Yeah you wanna play this hating game with me?

You wanna play this game yeah?
You wanna play this game with me?
Yeah you wanna play this hating game with me?

You won't make him fade away

You won't make him fade away
Yeah you wanna play?
You wanna play this game with me?

You won't make him fade away
You won't make him fade away
Yeah you wanna play?
You wanna play this game with me?

You know he's got my soul to keep
And now he's made me weak and he says to me
"Yeah you wanna play my game?"
"Yeah you wanna play my game?"
I try to change myself to breathe
But by the end of the week, I still feel the same
Yeah he won't fade away
Yeah he won't fade away
You know he's got my soul to keep
And now he's made me weak and he says to me
Yeah he won't fade away
Yeah he won't fade away
You know he's got my soul to keep
And now he's made me weak and he says to me
"Yeah you wanna play my game?"
"Yeah you wanna play my game?"

Taking myself away
Taking myself away
