I don't know what you want me to feel inside
All the hate in the world's made me numb inside
How I wish I was deaf, dumb and blind like you
But I don't have all the time you've been wasting
While you sleep walk through your life so preciously
Burn the pages I stored in my memory
And I'll reject and eject myself from me
Leave my body behind as an alibi

I'm flying so far away...

I don't know what I want me to feel inside
All the love in this world seems to vaporize
Try to save parts of me that are still alive
But you don't have all the time I've been wasting
Learn to breathe, learn to need, learn to trust the lies
Learn to live with the feeling of compromise
Tear your heart out and you'll live long and empty lives
Lost and fear kiss the violence within your mind
The more I see, the less I know
The more I see, the less I know
The more I see, the less I know
But now I can see that this world has no room for me

I'm flying so far away...

Oh baby, can't you see everyday is killing me?
(You're incomplete, I'm make belief)
