I listen to people think
It's an ability
But words move too fast
It leaves me behind
It doesn't matter
I'll sit here and ponder
Hoping that you're safe
As you freefall into grace

Summer days they let me drift away
I want you to know

It's only a game that I play
All in the words that you say

What you wanna be
What you wanna see
It's o.k. to laugh it away
Maybe all the things we've seen
Never existed anyway
That's fine by me

Memories were made to fade away
I don't seem to mind

Only a game that I play
All in the words you say
Echoes I feel everyday
I'm stronger when you fade into me

Summer days they help me drift away
Old memories I never could see, I never will know
Just want you to know

Only a game that I play
All in the words that you say
Echoes I feel everyday
Want to remain in your maze
