Did you ever feel like you're drowning
Did you ever feel like you're cloning
Rip up the books, phone off the hook
So now you got every little thing
Ochiteiku kanji shinai?
Yondeiru kanji shinai?
Atama ni sasaritsuduketa toge o kiritotte

You ought to call it up

Did you ever feel like you're drowning
Oboreteiru kanji shinai?
Rip up the books, phone off the hook
So now you got every little thing

And if you cut me out
You're never gonna get a chance to kick it up around

When I fall I see the best of me
The taste is always there

So crawl on me now, crawl on me now baby
Get on the ground, get on the ground with me and come
Just come back down with me
Kesenaide
Kokoro ni nokoru kinou no kage o
Tobikoete

Every little thing is flowing
You want to get to know
I don't know where my mind is
I came and stored it for a day in vertigo

Nothing's coming yet, but I get what I want you know

So crawl on me now, crawl on me now baby
Get on the ground, get on the ground with me and
come
Just come back down with me
Kesenaide

Kokoro ni nokoru kinou no kage o
Tobikoete
Sore ijou kore ijou nai hodo
Yukeru hate made ochiteyuke
Come
Just come back down with me
Slip and slide in a stored up broken blue eyed haze and we'll fall into place

You ought to call it up

So hold on and feel it as we're counting down the days
And we'll be counting down the days
