Don't need no broken soul
Stitched up and hidden under every pore
I had a hell but I've
Overgrown it and reached up out of that mode

You gotta glow
New Skin emerging and I'm not letting go
I like to shine it on my face like gold
I don't even really want to know my old self
You're changing

Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back
Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back
Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back
Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back

You've got it all wrong
I died once to save my life
Saw it in a tribute
Saw it in a tribute in a magazine

I hear it calling again and again
My past keeps clawing in
I hear it calling on the radio
On this old broken stereo

Oh yeah it's just a feeling that I never believed I'd know
Oh yeah I love to feel it grow
Oh yeah it's what I needed and it's all that I want to own
Oh yeah I had to feel it's always on my mind

Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back
Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back
Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back

Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back

Oh yeah it's just a feeling that I never believed I'd know
Oh yeah I love to feel it grow
Oh yeah it's what I needed and it's all that I want to own
Oh yeah I had to feel it

Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back
Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back
Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back
Yeah had to get some
Had to get it and I'm never gonna give it back
