Don't say you're sorry
Don't you worry baby
It's all too clear that we're all mixed up here baby

It's the night again and it feels gorgeous
As your thoughts appear in the gentle moonlit air
Solace it hold you, but it can't keep you warm
But when I feel you, I feel you warm in me

Don't say you're sorry
Just say you want me...softly

Lover doll
Why you look so sad?
You got to fix emotions that pull you under the ground

When I call you out
You hide yourself so far and deep and under neon
Those lights are so pretty, but they treat you unkindly
And always wear you out
Yeah just blow them out
And take a step towards me 'cause...

Love is all you need to feel
So come and we'll leave here together
Your love it gets me in tangles
Come and leave with me on my tide
