I know I missed the point
You tried to make it clear
I guess I learned the wrong philosophy
I seem to find life in my own dimension
I never knew that I could make it so real

This gentle world I have
That I pursue
It's make-belief
I like to step inside and lock the door behind me
Sometimes I feel like the world's stopped turning Sometimes I feel like I'm spinning on my own when I'm...

Blinded by the lights that lead me through
All the matters to me now
I'm gliding through this waveless ocean
And it's a feeling that I call my own

It fixes me
It gives me something
A hybrid feeling that I've never known
It fixes me
It calls me home
I'm out of reach here
But I'm in control

It's just a small lie
Getting me high
Let the world around me wash away and retreat
I'm just so far away
And I'd rather stay
Grounded right here if I could
It's even better than the real thing baby
It's even better than it ought to be

Blinded by the lights that lead me through
All that matters to me now
With no gravity chains
I just can't seem to come down
Numb beyond belief

And I feel so sweet
And now I seem to be forgetting how
All alone we are

It fixes me
It gives me something
I want you to know
It fixes me
It calls me home
I want you to know

So what you got?

Blinded by the lights that lead me through
All the matters to me now
And it's a feeling that I call my own
Look around and unlearn all the things I thought I knew Look around and I burn all the things that hold me down
(And now I can't get higher, I can't get finer)
