She makes me want to stay
I've never felt this way
Love is here all around me
I'd rather feel her pain
Than ever see her go away
I could never see, I could never know
The place she's taken me, I could never own I'm choking everyday, drowning slowly with Everything that is inside of her life

It's glowing around me right now and I feel it
And I can't even breathe, can't even see when I'm inside her
But I realise it...

I kinda feel that I'm breaking in my room
On a ground that I can't feel Dead flowers come alive when I inhale every word she gives to me
One touch of her skin and I heal without medication in me

It's glowing around me right now and I feel it
And I can't even breathe, can't even see when I'm
inside her
It calls me and burns me sometimes when I'm near
And I can't even talk, Can't even walk when I'm beside her
But I realise it
and it's warm like snow...

Oh baby, you separate me
From the side that pulls me into pain
I can't explain it, can't contain it I'm overloading with all the love that you've designed

It's glowing around me right now and I feel it
And I can't even breathe, can't even see when I'm
inside her
It calls me and burns me sometimes when I'm near
And I can't even talk, Can't even walk when I'm beside

her
It's glowing around me right now and I feel it
And I can't even breathe, can't even see when I'm
inside her
It calls me and burns me sometimes 'cause I'm weird
I can't even talk, Can't even walk when I'm beside her
