"Taste It"

I need to be just a little more cynical
To keep me dry when the rain starts coming down
All I can feel is the death tone megaphone
Sound in the streets while the sheeple crowd round
Yeah, 2, 3, 4 system error
I got me waking my mind up
Go! Beautiful is our future
But first you gotta understand the enemy

Can you all connect?

Taste it
You better taste it
Don't you look away now
Taste it
Together we'll get 'em
You better check the situation

I'm gonna find you out in a minute 'cause I spit the truth
I'll unplug your mind from the light show
You gotta be in the frontlines now if it's a life you covet
They wanna keep our existence down
The fear is we'll rise up again
They wanna kill our expression out
So taste it and base it on this

Can you all connect?

Taste it
You better taste it
Don't you look away now
Taste it
We'll get 'em, we'll get 'em
You better check the situation

Shake it, shake it, wanna shake it up
Shake it, shake it, wanna rip it up

Can you connect?
Can I connect?
They disconnect

The connection
