and i dont care if the sun shines i dont care if the moon glows i just wanna dream tonight about ur body and ur soul dont care bout no tomorrow cuz we're just here for the day dont know when stars will burst out all throw all this love away dont wanna hear no answers dont need to hear u speak i know it was a lie u always mean bulshit

no im not gonna fight this this is really gonna end no wonder why u started it u had a lot a fun that weekend yes i know it is not worth it u should try to accept the truth after all this just frases its all bout me and u
