i had to pretend i never knew u before i even had to pretend y didnt love u no more i taught u how to drive u taught me how to fall in love but i could never ever forget u now... forget u somehow

i swepted from 5 times in a month to 1 time in five,
but even then i just couldnt realize u are all that matter u were all my life but u were my friend's wife this is so sad i know, things can only get worse believe me i've been here before just when u think its over, it hasnt even started and u'll probably not even around when it does

but even then i just couldnt realize
but u were my friend's wife !

u are my best friend's wife !
