I got a system on fire
where memories are nightmares
if you live by the side you'll get thrown across to the wayside.
Don't even lie with what's going on.
I know it ain't right when the godheads are singing demise.

Let them bleed
Just let them bleed and bleed on, bleed on.

It's a message from the soul when visitors leave strange codes.
You'll think it's a bliss sphere then end up with your throat cut.
One less to worry about, silent killers make no sound.
You can't even begin to cut the spun web for the sake of spit.

Let them bleed
Just let them bleed and bleed on, bleed on.

We can't breath and we can't live have you had enough, had enough have ya?

Into the void we'll stay recluse and destroyed
No one can bring us back
We're nowhere for good.

Let them bleed
Just let them bleed and bleed on, bleed on.
