Friend, I'm glad you called
It's been a long time, yeah, I'm doin' okay
And I hear he's fine no, we're not together
Don't apologize it don't bother me

Given the chance I'd do it all again
Even knowin' how the story ends
I lost a love but gained a friend
So it's all in how you look at things

It's not a sad endin'
Just a new beginnin'
It ain't a love lost
But a lesson learned

And when a storm had passed
There was a rainbow waitin' on me
It was a sure sign the key to life
Isn't always in black or white
It's all in how you look at things

I know it seems to you that I'm the strong one
Knowin' all my heart had to overcome
You said if it were you when it were said and done
You'd be on your knees

The truth be told at first I thought
My whole world was gonna fall apart
'Til my mind convinced my heart
It's all in how you look at things

It's not a sad endin'
Just a new beginnin'
It ain't a love lost
But a lesson learned

And when a storm had passed
There was a rainbow waitin' on me
It was a sure sign the key to life
Isn't always in black or white
It's all in how you look at things

Yeah, it's all in how you look at things
Yeah, it's all in how you look at things
Yeah, it's all in how you look at things
Yeah, it's all in how you look at things
How you look at things
