What I should do is play it cool in front of you
And I just might fool you for a minute or two
But what I can't hide is everything I feel inside
'Cause the truth is, baby, my heart starts racing
When I'm next to you and love won't let me

And I go crazy when you come around
Go insane when we get a little closer now
I'd be inclined to chicken out but love won't let me

Love has a funny way of getting you into
Something that scares you but you can't resist
Or let you leave without a kiss but love won't let me

So we took that step, now I'm over my head
Now I'm circling earth and I'm pretty sure
I won't be comin' down for a while, but the trouble is Ever since that little kiss, I don't care, how late it gets Don't wanna let you outta these arms of mine, 'cause love won't let me

And I go crazy when you come around
Go insane when we get a little closer now
I'd be inclined to chicken out but love won't let me

Love has a funny way of getting you into
Something that scares you but you can't resist
Or let you leave without a kiss but love won't let me

Now I only wanna spend my time
Holdin' you tight every night
Baby, every time I think about love
I've loved you from the day we met, the way you get me
I'm so glad that love wouldn't let me.

And I go crazy when you come around
Go insane when we get a little closer now
I'd be inclined to chicken out but love won't let me

Love has a funny way of getting you into
Something that scares you but you can't resist

Or let you leave without a kiss but love won't let me

No, no, love won't let me
