It's time to step outside these walls you call my life
And take a long, hard look at who I am
I've never been one to fly, never known how or why
But tonight, it's all wearin' thin

I've caught glimpses of who I wanna be
And the only thing standin' in my way is me

Say goodbye to the girl you used to know
Say hello to the woman you'll never know

Guess, I could blame myself for being somethin' else
And bein' too afraid to make my stand
But I've been carved out and held down in self-created chains
So please let go as I close the door and walk away

Say goodbye to the girl you used to know
Say hello to the woman you'll never know
Ahh

Say goodbye to the girl you used to know
Say hello to the woman you'll never know
To the woman you'll never know
