Crayon colored skies can
Ease a troubled mind like nothing else
Oh yeah, the moment's so divine and
Once again I find I'm overwhelmed

I am amazed
You have a way of changing everything You touch
All that I see
Makes me believe You care so much for me
(Makes me believe You'll make so much of me)
Oh, Lord?

I'm trusting You
Do what You wanna do
I know my heart is safe in Your hands
Trusting You
Say that You'll see me through
This day, this night
I'm trusting You
I'm trusting You

You took me far away from
Things of yesterday, they're all behind
I wasn't much to bring You
I never knew the things You had in mind

Change would do me good, now
Someway, somehow
Make me into something new
I'm trusting You
