"Without You"

I was walking in the shadows to avoid Your light
Stumbling footsteps along the way
Knowing that I need to turn back so I closed my eyes Scared that a tear would appear and You'd see I'm afraid

Over and over and over again
I pushed away, but You reached out to touch my soul
I tell You over and over and over again
I made mistakes but You never let me go
So it's time I let You know

Without You I can't dream
Without You I can't see
Don't wanna live my life without You here with me
Without You I'm not me
Without You I won't be
Don't wanna live my life without You
Without You here within me

I was hiding in the silence to escape Your voice
Somehow my heart heard You call my name
Saw tomorrow in the distance and I had no choice
All of the walls disappeared and my tears fell like rain

Over and over and over again
I locked You out, but You held the key to my soul
I tell You over and over and over again
I have no doubt that You'll never let me go
No, it's nothin' You don't know

Life is like a dream when You are here with me
Never thought that I'd feel this happy now
I know that it's simple as just a prayer
I close my eyes, suddenly there You are Holding me, holding me

I don't want to live without You
Can't do without You
Can't do without You
My heart won't beat

I can't live without You're what it's all about
I can't, can't live without You're what I'm all about
