The smoke clears from the room
It's you
I get a perfect view
Have you heard of moments like these?
So clear,
And I find it hard to breathe
I find it hard to breathe

Something in the bright lights,
The way you move
Your eyes are wonderful
And every single thing you do
I can see right through you now
All the way
To the other side
Make me wanna run and hide
From you
It's too good to be true

I wouldnt have it any other way,
Any other way

Something in the bright lights
The way you move
Your eyes are wonderful
Why wont you tell me the truth?
I can see right through you now
All the way
To the other side

Fall to the floor
Catch a glimpse
Walking out the door
Did i miss my chance with you?
Did i let the moment pass?
Let the moment pass

Something in the bright ligths
The way you move
Your eyes are wonderful
And every single thing you do

I can see right through you now
All the way
To the other side
