Darling I've loved you all of these years
And you've never once caused the heartbreak or tear Without you to love me oh what would I do it's been a beautiful life loving you And darling I love you more every day and I'll stand beside you each step of the way You've made it heaven my dreams have come true it's been a beautiful life loving you If ever I need you you're always there life is much sweeter knowing you care Always together till life is through it's been a beautiful life loving you
