(J. Nelson - N. Russell)
Darling, I've learned how much
Your heart can cry and yearn
Two lips can pray for your return
At last I've learned.
Yes, yes, I've learned
The haunting, melancholy blues
The heartache when I long for you
At last I've learned.
Since you've been gone
I've been stayin' at home
And in this lonely solitude
I've lived over each moment with you.
Yes, I've learned
I loved, I loved, I loved you so
Awful, so wrong to let you go
Yes, I've learned.
Since you've been gone
I've been stayin' at home
And in this lonely solitude
I've lived over each moment with you...
