"Still Around"

To make you stay I'll never try and when you go I will not cry
But for a time I might be found somewhere live still around
But may you find a love that's true someone to love and cherish you
And if you love your whole life through and may you love as I love you But if you'll ever feel alone with no true love to call your own
And if you'll need a place to hide these arms of mine are open wide
And if a troubled love brings you pain my love is all like summer rain
Always remember I'll be found still around [organ]
To make you stay I'll never try and when you go I will not cry
