Fuck you for all you started,
Fuck you for all you want to be,
I've reached the end of all your fallacies,
Begin to gain composure,
i feel you getting closer,
Please don't, cause I will scream

I'm not like you, You're not like me
I've actually got a soul, and this is who I choose to be
You're not like me, I'm not like you,
You choose to fake yourself and this is how I am
Won't Change

I feel your dagger glances,
And all your sick romances,
Leading me towards that web called your insanity,
It's like I'm numb with sorrow,
Sucked dry I'm done, so hollow
I spineless fly that's left to die in your twisted web of lies

I'm not like you, You're not like me
I've actually got a soul, and this is who I choose to be
You're not like me, I'm not like you,
You choose to fake yourself and this is how I am
Won't Change

This is how I am, won't change,
This is how I am, won't change.

I'm not like you, You're not like me
I've actually got a soul, and this is who I choose to be
You're not like me, I'm not like you,
You choose to fake yourself and this is how I am
Won't Change

This is how I am, won't change!
This is how I am, won't change!
