It's time I started thinking on my feet
Instead of on my back
Now I got time, time enough at last

[Incomprehensible] last, boy
Time enough at last
It's been the bane of my life
But I've got time enough at last

I got time, time enough at last
Time enough at last, boy
Time enough at last

And sometimes people think you're just stupid
But I got time at last
I got time, time enough at last

Time enough at last, boy
Time enough at last
Time enough at last, boy
Time enough at last

'Cos I got time, time enough at last
It's just stupid thinkin' 'bout the past
'Cos I got time enough at last

In a city in turmoil it's hard to extract
The brains from the head of a minor executive
'Cos now I got time, time enough at last
Time enough at last, boy
Time enough at last

Time enough at last, boy
Time enough at last
And the projectiles hit you
When you least expect it

Said, I got time, time enough at last
From a summit of experience
To a pit of its knowledge
'Cos I got time, time enough at last

Time enough at last, boy
Time enough at last
I got time, time enough at last
