I don't mind you goin' down to the bar
And talkin' 'bout the lady's man that you think you are
If you stay out late come home a little too tight
I don't say a word everything's still all right

I don't mind you sayin' you're the boss at home
And actin' like you're a king on a golden throne
And braggin' how you got me in the palm of your hand
But if I ever catch you with another girl
Gonna throw a lock on your sweet world

For you know what happened to me
I'll be gone with another man
Just thought I'd give you a little advice
Fore you cross that line think twice

'Cause if you do it's gonna be sad
And I'll pull hurt like you've never had So don't go a lookin' for love like a man that's free
'Cause you got more love than you need right here with me

Cheatin' and lyin' are things, I just can't stand
So if I ever catch you a doin' me wrong
You ain't a gonna have no woman at home

Fore you know what happened to me
I'll be gone with another man
So if I ever catch you a doin' me wrong
