See the tree how big it's grown
But that it hasn't been too long it wasn't big
You laughed at me and I got mad
The first day that I planted it was just a twig

Then the first snow came and I ran out
To brush the snow away, so it wouldn't die
Came runnin' in all excited slipped
And almost hurt myself and you laughed till you cried

Yes, you were always young at heart
Kinda dumb and kinda smart and I loved you so
You surprised me with a puppy
Kept me up all Christmas Eve two years ago

And you could sure embarrass me
When you came home from working late
'Cause you would know that I'd been all alone
And cryin' over some sad and lonely late, late show

And honey, I miss you too and I know you're being good
And I'd love to be with you if only I could

I wrecked the car and I was sad
And so afraid that you'd be mad but what the heck
All afternoon you stormed around
But I knew how to cool you down, I hugged your neck

You came home unexpectedly and caught me crying
Needlessly in the middle of the day
And it was in the early spring
When flowers bloom and robins sing, I went away

And honey, I miss you too and I know you're being
good
And I'd love to be with you if only I could

One day you were not at home while I was there
And all alone the angels came
Guess you thought it strange of me to live the way I did
That day it was a shame

But now your laughter just began
And even though you miss me, hon', you must go on
And when the snow fly passes overhead
And cries down on my flower bed, you know you're not alone

See the tree how big it's grown
But that it hasn't been too long it wasn't big
You laughed at me and I got mad
The first day that I planted it was just a twig
