Darlin', I've learned
How much your heart can cry and yearn
Two lips can pray for your return
At last, I've learned

Yes, yes, I've learned
The haunting melancholy blues
The heartache when I long for you
At last, I've learned

Since you've been gone
I've been a stay at home
And in this lonely solitude
I've lived over each moment with you

Yes, I've learned
I love, I love, I love you so
I feel so wrong to let you go
Yes, I've learned

Since you've been gone
I've been a stay at home
And in this lonely solitude
I've lived over each moment with you

Yes, I've learned
I love, I love, I love you so
I feel so wrong to let you go
Yes, I've learned
