(Don Chapel)

Outside the sun is shining it's such a pretty day
I'm waitin' in the shadows watchin' you and Joey play
Right now I feel like dying cause I heard Joey say
All the other kids I know have daddies everday.
Oh daddy, please ask mommy
Could you come home to stay?
Me and mommy need you and love you anyway
All the other kids I know have daddies everday.
Honey I've been thinking how little Joey's right
He doesn't understand how little child is grown up high You're just his Sunday daddy could you come home to stay
Cause all the other kids he knows have daddies everyday
Oh daddy, please ask mommy
Could you come home to stay?
Me and mommy need you and love you anyway
All the other kids I know have daddies everday...
