Kids say the darndest things
Have you ever listened close to the games they play
Or the little songs they sing

Last night dressed up in a high heel shoes
And wearing my old hat
My four year old said
"I wanna divorce", Now where did she hear that

Kids say the darndest things
Have you ever listened close to the games they play
Or the little songs they sing

Last night as I watched TV
One rushed through the door
Mommy daddy's telling someone on the phone
"Don't you call me here no more"

Kids say the darndest things
Have you ever listened close to the games they play
Or the little songs they sing

Bet my daddy can whip your daddy
But daddy's never home
And I think mommy's worried 'bout him
'Cause she cried all night long

Kids say the darndest things
Have you ever listened close to the games they play
Or the little songs they sing

You never know what they learn at school
Or what they're thinking of
My first grader just said a four letter word
And it sure wasn't love

Kids say the darndest things
Have you ever listened close to the games they play
Or the little songs they sing
Kids say the darndest things
