If want to hear a love song
I could sing one
If you wanna feel the fire
We could build one.

If you need to catch a rainbow
We could chase one
If you want to be together
We could be one.

One and one, I've always heard
Adds up to two
But one and one is only one
When that one is me and you.

If you believe in forever
We could start one
If you want to be together
We could be one.

--- Instrumental ---

Now you talk about tomorrows
I can see one
There's no mountain we can't climb
If we reach one.

If you believe in forever
We could start one
If you want to be together
We could be one.

One and one, I've always heard
Adds up to two
But one and one is only one
When that one is me and you.

If you believe in forever
We could start one

If you want to be together
We could be one.

If you want to be together
We could be one...
