Sing your song sweet music man
Cause I won't be there to hold your hand
Like I used to I'm through with you
You're a beautiful of a singer and a powerful man
But you surround yourself with people who Demand so little of you

You touched my soul with your beautiful song
Even had me singing along right with you said I need you
Then you changed the words and added harmony
Sang the song you had written for me to someone new

Nobody sings a love song quite like you do
Nobody else could make me sing along
Nobody else could make me feel
That things are right when I know there wrong
Nobody sings a love song quite like you

Sing your song sweet music man
You travel the world with a six piece band
That does for you what you ask them to
And you try to stay young with the song you've sung
So many people have all begun to come back on you

So sing your song sad music man
You're making your living doing one night stands
That prove to you they don't need you
You're still a beautiful singer but a broken man
But you keep on looking for one last fan to sing to

Nobody sings a love song quite like you do
Nobody else could make me sing along
Nobody else could make me feel
That things are right when I know there wrong
Nobody sings a love song quite like you

Sing your song sweet music man
Sing your song sweet music man
