"Take Me Home And Love Me"

Take me home again tonight and love me
'Cause there's no other place on earth I'd rather be

All my life I've never been this much in love with any man
And God knows I've been needin' here so long
The places where we always go they're fine with me
But don't you know that I'd rather be with you at home

So darling take me home again tonight and love me
'Cause there's no other place on earth I'd rather be

You're everything I ever want to live for can't you see
Let's go home again tonight so you can love me

Take me home again tonight and love me
'Cause there's no other place on earth I'd rather be
