They said you were a loser
When I met you
Never stayed with anyone
For very long

They said I'd never hold you
And I guess they knew
There'd be something else
Beside you overnight

I love you follow four year old
Was such a gift
And two little arms
Around you neck so tight

But a four month glass of whiskey
Gave the best to you
And the bottle by your pillow
Made your night

I thought that I could

Make a better man of you
But changes just don't happen
Overnight

You asked true love so many things
We couldn't do
And you just never let
That bottle out of sight

There's not a thing on earth
That we can do to make you stay
But I know every time
We touched the bottom

Ya hear my voice but see her face
Every single time
Every time you opened up the bottle

Ya hear my voice and see her face

Every single time
Every time you opened up the bottle

The bottle.
