From our first kiss in the morning to our last kiss at night

He knows how to keep you from crossing my mind

From sun up to bed time he's my everything
Oh, but darlin' you still get to me in my dreams

When sleep overtakes me you take over again
And you love me all over till he steps back in
He makes a prisoner of the loves that he brings
Oh, but darlin' you still get to me in my dreams

He takes good care of my of my passion
Cause he wants love to last
He always takes less than he is willing to give
He tries to protect me from dangerous things
Oh but darlin' you still get to me in my dreams

When sleep overtakes me you take over again
And you love me all over till he steps back in
Oh, but darlin' you still get to me in my dreams

Oh, but darlin' you still get to me in my dreams
