Ah look here, baby, how can it be
You ain't give me no jelly, baby
Just let me see

So, I feel like taking it
Yes, I feel like taking it
Yes, I feel like taking it, baby
Ooh, and making my get away

I don't believe, baby
In waiting for long
Every time I ask you, baby
There is something wrong

So I feel like taking it
Ooh, I feel like taking it
Yes, I feel like taking it baby
Ooh, and making my get away

Don't come here, baby
Telling you [Incomprehensible]
I'm going ahead with this morning, baby
If I have to go to jail

'Coz I'm thinking of taking it
Ooh, I'm thinking of taking it
Yes, I feel like taking it, baby
Ooh, and making my get away

No use, you could try me, baby
But you can no more
You better pull down your window, baby
You better lock your door

'Coz I'm thinking of taking it
Ooh, I'm thinking of taking it
Yes, I feel like taking it, baby
Ooh, and making my get away
