Show as three and throw a seven
I'm on my way to Heaven
Any time I'm on my way to see you

It's above imagination
How I love and used to hate you
Somehow I've grown so fonder of you

You got that very smile
That makes me feel so satisfied
When you're far or near
My heart is with you all the while

Every step I take towards you
Make me wait so much harder
Time to make myself more worthy of you

Show as three and throw a seven
I'm on my way to Heaven
Any time I'm on my way to see you

It's above imagination
How I love and used to hate you
Somehow I've grown so fonder of you

You got that very smile
That makes me feel so satisfied
When you're far or near
My heart is with you all the while

Every step I take toward you
I've tried so much the harder
Time to make myself more worthy of you
