Why can't I be your one and your only?

How can you love and leave me so lonely?

Girl, if you must go leave me

If you must go away

Each hour I'll be yearning

For your return someday

When I can't believe that all-a my scheming
And dreaming of love, we are through, no-no
But why keep me guessing?
I love you and confessing
Tell me that you love me, too
Yeah!

(instrumental & kazoo)

When I can't believe that all-a my scheming
And dreaming of love, we are through, no-no
But why keep me guessing?
I love you and confessing
Tell me that you love me, too
