"You're More Than A Palace To Me"

I've given up a palace, a town and everything
But long as you're mine, I'll gladly bear the blame
For you're more to me than a palace is to a king

And though they talk about you and call you out your name
Long as you're mine, my heart will sure sing
You're more to me than a palace is to a king

There's something magic about you
That [Incomprehensible] my brain
It's got the whole world a-guessing
But it's something I can't explain

But life for me without you wouldn't mean a thing
I'd be like a snowball melting in a flame
For you're more to me than a palace is to a king

There's something magic about you
That [Incomprehensible] my brain
It's got the whole world a-guessing
But it's something I can't explain

Oh, life for me without you wouldn't mean a thing
I feel like a snowball melting in a flame
For you're more to me than a palace is to a king
