I saw you in a picture that hung on the wall
A sister told me you are the ball
There was no attraction but boy was I wrong
Now you're my baby line and my baby song
Ooh, you persistence, blew up my resistance

Boom, boom, boom, like a hammer to the heart
Just one look at you, and baby I was blown apart
Boom, boom, boom, yeah I knew right from the start
That this was something new, oh baby hammer to the heart

Knew what you were doing, when you hit the spot
Sexual messiah, you know what you've got
Take me to heaven, let's keep it hot
Show me the tricks that the devil forgot
Come on boy erotic make all night love narcotic

Boom, boom, boom, like a hammer to the heart
Just one look at you, and baby I was blown apart
Boom, boom, boom, yeah, I knew right from the start
That this was something new, oh baby hammer to the heart
Hammer to the heart, hammer to the heart

Got a craving for my love narcotic
Send a message to my boy erotic
Now our love's exploding like a rocket

Boom, boom, boom, boom
Boom, boom, boom, like a hammer to the heart
Just one look at you, and baby I was blown apart
Boom, boom, boom, yeah I knew right from the start
That this was something new, oh baby hammer to the heart
