sit and watch you from my window lady
I see you giving yourself away, you been working hard all day
I see the ground catch at your feet
I see the sweet signs of defeat like your beatin but you feel no pain
Sweet lady, sweet lady

And then you turn to me instinctively
Just like you're checking if you're alone

Then like a reflex from my mind
I fall away into the background
Like a shadow on the wall
Shadow on the wall (3x)

See I've got nothing left to loose
I think it's time I change my view (3x)

Just like a king in his lonely kingdom
Like a ruler who had no rules
See I've got nothing left to lose
I think its time i change my view

I got nothing left to loose
Like a bubble never had no shoes
Walking these streets, deep and dark as night
I wanna love I don't wanna fight
I wanna love I don't wanna fight, yeah yeah (7x)
