Some people say it's not the best
When it's the best that you can do
Some people say it's not a test
So what you trying to put me through

Don't let the cold come through my window
And steal this heart of mine
Don't let it all come down together
Not like the last time

(Don't let the cold come through my window
And steal this heart)

Some people say it's just the show
That's gone and made a star of you
Not the light and love you hold
That's another thing to be seen through

Don't let the night fall all around me
Not now I've walked so far
Don't let it all come down together
And lose a good heart
And lose a good heart
Where do you go
When it all goes wrong
You feel so know but you know no-one
You listen to a voice
That's so unsung

(Don't let the cold come through my window
And steal this heart
Don't let the night fall all around me
Now I've walked so far)

Don't let the cold come through my window
And steal this heart of mine
Don't let it all come down together
Not like the last time

Yeah yeah
Make that the last time
Let it go, let it go
