You don't want to do too much staring at the evening sun maybe you cannot stand up but you have become one I just want to see her smile maybe when she will never hurt and all that I have yearned to touch, well, I have made worse is she all you need? ah, you fools first agreed

I don't want to spoil your game everyday is bound to change making every move seem wise in her dark eyes no, I don't want to be the clown making loke I've seen too much when everything from here is down I am the head-rush is she all you need? would you steal from me? is she all you see?
and the sky, the sky, the sky is shining , the sky is mine now, I don't want to lose at love maybe you would take the chance struggle in anothers world i'm just losing at once is she all you need? (she all you need?) she's been too far, too far from me and she's all, all, all that you see yea, the sky, the sky is mine

yea, the sky, the sky is mine
I don't want to lose at love I don't want to lose at love now, the sky, the sky was mine yeah the sky was mine the sky, the sky was mine the sky was mine

I don't want to lose at love, I don't want to lose at love
