Keep sun in, some faces
Keep warm inside
I'll take it, I'll make it
The days you pride yourself on
He won't be eager-making
Or make some peace with you
Well, I saw it
I know it's true

It should be
Some day [now | one]
When I ride high
I try to - be near you
Say at least I tried
I keep on checking solo
And be early and so
(hey) your lesson
My lesson, too

It should be
And can't see
Where you never will go
It should be and can be
But I never will know
No, I never will

Keep grinning
Hard laughing
That helps to soothe
I witnessed, I been there
The same as you
I can't be always angry
It makes this
Stance seem pale
Hey, your lesson
My lesson, too
[it | i] should be and can't see
Where you never will go
It should be and can be
But I never know
No, I never will

Oh (oh), these dancers
Makes the time turn night
Heaven help the romancer
You never got it
You never get it right

I send this, it's easy
When you can't keep
I cross - a stone river
Say least I need
There will be some receiving
There will be some for me
(hey) your love lost
It burns in me

[it | i] should be
And can't see
But I never will know
[it | i] should be
And can't see
It should be and can be
But I never will know
No, I never will
