"Love Is Just A Word"

Do you feel love is just a word to say sometimes?
...Love is just a word to say
We are so far from knowing
I feel so far

All my life I'll be running
From the things that I never done
All my life I'll be running
From the things that I never done
Still a fighter keeps the dream alive
If I wasn't this close to heaven
I'd be letting down the side

Lord knows I'll find a way
Through the sleepless city, its weary face
Holding you
Do you feel love is just a word I say sometimes
Do you feel love is just a word I say
For I feel so far from knowing
I feel so far from knowing
I feel so far from knowing
I feel so far

All my life I'll be running
From the things that I never done
All my life I'll be running
Keep me from harm
